My sweet darling Caitlin,

You have made your Ah Kong and Nana so very happy by visiting us in Singapore. Three and a half months and you have stolen so many hearts, especially ours, with your sweet and infectious smile. You are an adorable and beautiful baby and we love you so.

Caitlin, you are the most precious gift your parents have given us. Words cannot describe the joy and happiness we feel when we are with you. We want you to know how much we love and adore you. More importantly I would like you to know you are so fortunate to have your Mummy and Daddy love you so much. Your Mummy takes such great care of you while your Daddy is at work. Your Daddy is a very good father and also takes special care of you when he is not at work. Like Mummy, he adores you and devotes all his time to you. Mummy and Daddy are the best in the world – you are so very lucky. You are blessed to have the most important thing in life – LOVE.

Your Mummy loves you so much that when you are unwell or upset and cries hard and non-stop, she cries too. She cannot bear to see you unwell or upset, it hurts and upsets her. Such is her deep love for you.

Your Daddy feels the same...but he's a big boy...he tries hard to fight back the tears.

Always remember you are loved!

Your Loving
Nana

Darling Caitlin,

Ah Kong and Nana will miss you terribly. We take with us your kisses, hugs, smiles, playfulness and laughter. We hope you will remember us.

Be a good girl – God bless and look after you.

All our love,
Ah Kong and Nana
